|--------------------------------|---|
| PRAYER | Father Michael Fowler led us in the opening prayer. |
| INTRODUCTION | Steve Worboys asked if there were any questions regarding the February minutes, hearing none, Steve made a motion to approve the minutes. John Connelly seconded the motion and they were accepted by those present. Steve then asked everyone to introduce themselves and the parish they represent. There were no guests. Steve then introduced the Cluster Secretary, Ann Brule. She came to give a review of her responsibilities. |
| ANN BRULE | Ann presented a review of all of the many responsibilities that she has for the combined parishes. She is the face of the Cluster. She is the first one that people see and who answers their questions. She is the liaison between the three parishes, the towns they are located in as well as the Diocese. She prepared the weekly bulletin, maintains parish databases, the weekly envelopes and the yearly statements to the parishioners, as well as the on-line calendar. . She prepared the weekly schedules of masses, schedule Baptisms, and funeral arrangements, the parish Newsletter, and parish website. She is also the backup person to write checks. She assists those looking for genealogy information. She is the Human Resource contact person and assists in keeping a safe environment in all of our parishes. Father said that “she is the face of the parish to the world”. |
| PASTORAL UPDATE FATHER MICHAEL | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> . Father said that he could not have been more proud of those being Confirmed last week. 18 young people for our parish were involved in many aspects of the service, choir, etc. He said that our parishes had more young people than any of the other parishes represented . R.E.Kelly is back at work on the bell tower as well as removing bricks from the tall chimney at east side of the church. We still need about $14,000 to complete this project. . CMA campaign is still short of its goal, about $6-7,000 This will continue through May. . St. Rose was gifted with a new to them organ to replace the old one. . There will be a clean-up day, Saturday April 13th at St. Paul of the Cross. . Father thanked John Connelly and Bob Alexander for the wonderful job they did refinishing the door at St. Paul of the Cross. . Father is certain that he has a volunteer for the opening on the Council from St. Rose. . A Safety Committee has been started with John Connelly the representative form St. Paul of the Cross. |
| OPEN FORUM | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> . John said that The Village of Honeoye Falls Street lights have all switched to LED. Our Security lights are connected to Village power on Lehigh St. so John has spoken to Village officials and National Grid to ask if our high energy security lights could also be switched to LED. TBD. . Tina has not set-up a committee to oversee the decorative changes that she purposed at the February meeting, Perhaps offer to assist her in this project as the discussion is ongoing. . Mary suggested that a card and /plant be sent to Dan. . John asked the 2 ladies, youth reps, what they thought of the PC Meeting. Emma asked how they could help. . Joan said that 2 angels had been rescued form the basement of St. Agnes and were being repainted to be displayed in the old rectory. They were made by a firm, DaPrata Rigali, in Chicago, Ill., that began in 1860 by 4 brothers and a cousin John E. Ragali. from Barga, Italy. The whole town were carvers because they were close to a carrara marble quarry. The firm is still in business. |
