| CHICKEN-BARBEQUE                       | The Chicken-barbeque was held on May 28th. There was a one meal difference in the total as compared to last year. This event is not considered to be a huge fundraiser. The goal is a social activity to bring the parishes together and perhaps raise some funds or at least cover the cost involved. There was a large turnout from people outside the St. Rose Parish. There were few parishioners present, but enough to staff the event. It was more of a community social event than a parish social event. Michael Falk has chaired this event for the past 16 years. He thinks that it should be considered over the summer to be sure that they should continue to have this event. Discussion of the event included that: It is a good idea: Like the idea that it is open to the community as an event to bring the community together: Is it a bad weekend? Many folks are out of town on this weekend. There was no Saturday Mass to bring folks in. Was there sufficient advertising? What direction should this event take in the future? Revisit in September. (for a decision on continuing the event) |                                                    |                                       |                                                    |                 |               |                 |                |                 |                |

|                              | St. Agnes. The cookers are John Connelly, Michael Falk, Michael Young, and Daniel Marcellus. Please bring spatula, tongs and an apron. The format will be the same as last year with everyone bringing a dish to pass per the directions in the Bulletin. The tables can be set up about 3pm and cooking to start about 4:30 pm. Tops is holding the food items until Saturday pm. Bonnie said that the date was changed to Saturday so that it would follow the Mass. Honeoye Falls is having some activities earlier in the day, but should not affect each other.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| PASTORAL COUNCIL CALENDAR    | The schedules for the coming year will be determined over the summer. If you have any requests, please get them to the office ASAP. The diocesan guidelines require a minimum of 4 meetings/year.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| MEETINGS FOR 2016-2017       | After much discussion, the consensus seemed to be that the number of meetings should remain the same, 10 per year, without any in the summer. Keeping to a schedule would provide continuity for the group and for any activities that are undertaken. The meetings should have a purpose, not just to meet. There should be goals with times and interaction with other committees, Finance, School, Buildings &amp; Grounds, etc. We should all be on the same page'                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| BONNIE DEPREZ                | Bonnie presented an update on the progress being made in the repairs to the parish buildings. There is a lot to be done and it is costly. There is some funding available from the diocese. The roof bids for St. Paul's church are due on June 20. Bonnie requested that the trustees, finance committee, and Pastoral Council members from St. Paul's meet to review the bids. Bonnie needs signatures from the trustees and Mike Falk to continue the effort for work needed @ St. Rose. | FATHER MICHAEL               | Father Michael said that he would be here at least one year more, as Parochial Administrator. It is unanimous Father is the glue that is bringing this cluster together.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| OPEN FORUM                   | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. St. Rose and St. Paul of the Cross have monthly events. St. Agnes does not in part because there is not a community space available near the church. It was suggested that a coffee hour be re-instated following one of the Masses. It could be hosted by the Council members, the Small Faith Group, the School Advisory Comm. or a combination. One suggestion was that there should be a council member from each parish at the coffee hour regardless of its location.</li> <li>2. The Council is an advisory body. Perhaps review the role definitions at the Sept. meeting.</li> <li>3. St. Agnes has not participated in the food court at the Corn Festival last year. Michael Drexler used to organize this, but does not now. Perhaps we should consider getting back into this event.</li> </ol> |
| NEXT MEETING LOCATION & DATE | The next meeting will be September 13th at 7pm at St. Paul of the Cross.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
